Commenting on the Awards, Wolfgang Gerner said , “Our Partner Standard programme is unique within the Garage Door industry and has proved to be extremely successful since its’ launch just over two years ago. We wanted to make sure that our partners get the recognition that they deserve for all of their hard work, which often goes unnoticed.

At Hörmann we are lucky to work with the most professional and successful garage door companies throughout the whole of the UK and I personally would like to thank them all - for being part of the Partner Standard initiative and for the loyalty that they constantly display towards Hörmann. Congratulations to all of the winners, and for those of you who have not been successful this time you will definitely get another chance next year.”
