Commenting on the Awards, David O'Mara Marketing Manager at Hörmann UK said, "Our Partner Standard programme is unique within the Garage Door industry and our annual awards are held to ensure that our partners get the credit they deserve for all of their hard work, which often goes unnoticed. Special congratulations must go to ABi Doors, who have twice been runner-up for the Dealer of the Year – this year they receive well-deserved recognition for their continuous high levels of service, employee training and commitment to the Hörmann brand.

I personally would like to thank all of our dealers and installers for being part of the Partner Standard initiative, joining in with our annual awards and for the loyalty that they constantly display towards Hörmann.”
